GRIFFITH PLAY BENEFIT FOR RELIEF FUND

David Wark Griffith, who is doing his bit with the moving picture people in the interest of the European Relief Council, participates in the special matinee on to-morrow, Saturday, January 29, with fifteen productions of his new photoplay, "Way Down East." In some cities there will be two performances of the Griffith play, instead of one given as a benefit for the starving children of Europe, the total proceeds being donated.

Mr. Griffith, who is a Kentuckian, expected to be in Louisville for the opening of "Way Down East" at Macaulay's this week, but falling to keep this engagement, has sent word that he is co-operating with the European Relief Council, and with Mr. Hoover, with the deepest interest and hopes that every Kentuckian who is able is sharing in the cost of saving these little European lives.

A check of $10.00 or more to Richard Bean, Kentucky Treasurer, addressed to any bank in Kentucky will make the donor a member of the Invisible Guest Club and will bring a certificate signed by Herbert Hoover, chairman.

BOURBON FARMING CONDITIONS

The past week was one of very little activity on Bourbon county farms so far as farm work was concerned. A cold spell during the earlier part of the week made the outdoors an uncomfortable place to work in, and during the later days most of the farmers were in town with their tobacco or to watch the sales.

A great deal of tobacco stripping is going on, however, and the movement to the market is unusually active. Prices have been at the lowest ebb for many years, with thousands of pounds selling at prices that hardly pay warehouse expenses, and yet the receipts are larger than ever before.

Many farmers in this county, it was stated Saturday, are preparing to take a different course this year in farming operations. They will devote more of their land to corn and hay and other grain crops to take the place of tobacco. It is expected that a larger crop of corn and wheat than ever before will be harvested in this county this year. Farmers are being urged to take up livestock as a more profitable method of using the corn and hay crops, but the idea has not yet taken a very deep root.

The cold snap of the past week did not damage the wheat to any great extent, and the crop is looking fine. Practically all of the wheat has been gathered. Hay prices showed a slight slump during the week, while corn is maintaining a low price along with other farm products.

AGRICULTURAL COURSE FOR NEGRO SERVICE MEN

A six weeks' course in agriculture is offered to negro former service men of Kentucky by the National Y. M. C. A. War Work Council through the agency of the State Y. M. C. A., beginning January 22, at the State Colored Normal School at Frankfort. The course includes lectures and laboratory work.

Such practical subjects are scheduled, according to announcement at Y. M. C. A. headquarters here, as the production and marketing of vegetables, study of plant insects and diseases, field crops, livestock feeding and breeding, fertilizers, poultry raising, soil and farm accounting. The normal school will furnish tuition free of charge to former service men and the State Y. M. C. A. will arrange for funds with which to cover the expenses of board and books.

Former service men who are eligible have been asked to enroll without delay.

Peter Walker, officiating at his residence, in Cincinnati. Mr. May is a brother of Mrs. John Wigglesworth, of Paris. ## RHINOCK—QUINN.

—The Louisville Times has the following account of the romance connected with the marriage of attorney John M. Quinn, brother of Ed. Quinn, L. & N. engineer, of Paris. The bridegroom is well known here, where he has frequently visited his brother, and family, on Ferguson street.

"As the culmination of a school day romance, John M. Quinn, 24 years old, Louisville attorney, and Miss Jessamine Rhinock, 23 years old, Covington, Ky., were married in New Albany, Saturday—but without the knowledge of the bride's parents.

"The parental blessing will be asked in a telegram to be sent. In the meantime Mrs. Quinn is living with friends in Louisville, and Mr. Quinn is residing at the Willard Hotel.

"The ceremony was performed by Magistrate Thos. E. Fogle, New Albany, and another ceremony was performed by Father Joseph Eick pastor of St. Francis Catholic church, Covington, immediately afterward.

"The bride and bridegroom attended the Covington High School and Valparaiso University together. Mrs. Quinn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rhinock, Covington. Mr. Quinn came to Louisville several years ago from Laurel county, Kentucky."

KENTUCKIAN NOW DEPUTY REVENUE COMMISSIONER

Millard F. West, who came to Washington from Lancaster, Ky., many years ago, has been promoted to Deputy Commissioner of Internal Revenue and will have charge of statistics, receipts and disbursements. He had been Supervisor of Accounts recently, but prior to that has been deputy collector serving in raids on moonshine distilleries, deputy commissioner in charge of distilled spirits, tobacco, estate and has also had supervision of sales. Mr. West was appointed first under Commissioner John W. Yerkes.

CALEB POWERS MENTIONED FOR CENSUS DIRECTOR

Kentucky will furnish one applicant for director of the Bureau of Census in the administration of President Harding, according to information brought to Louisville from the mountains to the effect that the Republicans of Eastern Kentucky are boosting Caleb Powers, former Congressman from the Eleventh district, for the position.

The Bureau of Census is connected with the Department of Commerce, and the position is said to be one of the best at the disposal of the new administration. The place is filled at present by Sam L. Rogers, who has been in charge since soon after the Democrats took charge of the government eight years ago.

So far the name of no other Kentuckian has been mentioned in connection with the appointment, and Mr. Powers may have a clear field from his home State. There was talk of Mr. Powers making the race for Congress next year, but his friends say he will not make the race, but will seek favors at the hands of the administration.

Directors of the census are appointed by the President and received a salary of $6,000 a year.

WITCH-BURNING TIME

(Cincinnati Enquirer)

Modern would-be understudies of the blessed saints are forging forward in their crusade to redeem this wicked world, so far at least as America is concerned.

A member of the Tennessee General Assembly is one of these anointed servants of super-virtue. If his proposals are carried into effect we shall bid good-by to Sunday baseball and all other games; no more shall we read a Sunday newspaper, nor ride on the steam or trolley cars, nor yet in the festive automobile; theatres and movie houses will be closed; there will be no barter or trade of any kind whatsoever. Here is a choice bit from this new evangel now sweeping the country under the auspices of the Anti-Saloon League spirits: "Too long have the people of the earth clung to the fleshpots, and their doom is as certain as that of Tyre and Sodom. Europe is the Sodom and America the Gomorrah, and only the immediate return to the Puritanical religious precepts of the witch-burning days can save the earth from destruction."

It clearly is to be seen that this apostolic prophet of doom would rejoice in lighting the faggots of the funeral pyres whereon the unregenerate should die.

This talk merely a bit more extreme than now is heard on every hand. But it represents the logical outcome of this menace to democracy if permitted to have its intolerant way. This man and all his kind represent something that was thought to have been banished forever from the world. He invokes discussions, hatreds, intolerance, all the black brood of evils which cursed the earth through eighteen bloody centuries. And he speaks this creed openly in America!

Rev. Dr. Niles Carpenter, of Harvard University, is not of the ilk of the Tennessee divinity legislator. He recently declared that Sunday blue laws were un-Christian. He finds in recent schemes for social reform all the essential elements of Bolshevism. He asserted that it was not Christian for any minority to decide what was best for a majority, that such policies savor of Bolshevism, leading to such movements as the blue law movement and the earlier restrictive laws in this country and England.

NEED KENTUCKY MAN IN THE CABINET

(Courier-Journal)

The glee with which some Democratic newspapers hail—among the variable and fluctuating rumors from the haunts of the President-elect—the report that Alvin T. Hert, of Kentucky, will not be a member of the Cabinet is incomprehensible, except as a manifestation of partnership as petty as it is provincial. The fact is that the Cabinet is going to be made up of Republicans from somewhere. It would be a signal honor for Kentucky to have one of its citizens in a position of such distinction in the place of a citizen of another State, with no greater qualifications. If Kentucky had a sufficient number of Republicans of Cabinet caliber, we are frank to say that we would take pride in seeing the entire Cabinet recruited from them. The more the merrier!
